BLACK WALNUTS --- THE UNIQUE FLAVOR FOR THE ICE CREAM INDUSTRY

Black Walnuts from Hammons Products Company are perennial favorites in the ice cream industry. This is due to the unique taste packaged by nature into each nut morsel.

The black walnut has historically been a Midwestern taste sensation that is now used nationwide in the ice cream industry. The ice cream industry is specifically excited about the black walnut because it accents and compliments the flavor and texture of ice cream. Many consumers find this rich, indulgent ingredient is often savored first through its rich aroma. This is why new users to black walnut ice cream are immediately intrigued and prior customers stand in line for more.

Hammons Products Company has multiple sizes as well as blends of sizes that have been time tested for maximum flavor and freshness.

The Black Walnut has been an American Heritage that is primarily harvested in 15 states and processed by Hammons Products Company in Stockton, Missouri.
